GUATEMALA INVASION

Filibustering Expedition Reported
Being Organized

AT CITY OF MOBILE.

It Is Also Alleged That Diaz Has Massed Soldiers at the Boundary Line Preparatory to Making a Coup.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The secretary of state has called to the attention of the department of justice certain bodies of men in Mobile who are said to be heading a filibustering expedition against Guatemala. This action has been taken at the suggestion of the Guatemalan government, which said that an American port was being used as a base of hostile operations against friendly nation, and that the men who were represented to be merely laborers going to develop a railroad concession were really part of a force recruited in the United States to initiate a revolutionary movement in Guatemala.

The state department has asked the department of justice to make an inquiry, and if need be, to take the necessary steps to check the movement.

The relations between Guatemala and Mexico are threatened to become seriously strained, the former government being disposed to connect the revolutionary movement with Mexican activities. Mexican troops, placed on the boundary between the two countries ostensibly to maintain neutrality and prevent the organization of filibustering expeditions directed against Guatemala, are under suspicion of being intended to invade the smaller republic, and a rapid exchange of diplomatic notes is in progress between Guatemala City and the City of Mexico. Meanwhile, following the precedent established during the existence of the last clash between the two governments over the boundary line several years ago, the state department has instructed its agents in both countries to use their good offices to prevent the growth of ill feeling between the two countries, and is doing all that it properly can here in the same line.

Denied at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 25.—A representative of the Associated Press interviewed L. M. Moraguez, consul for Nicaragua, and also an extensive ship owner, whose vessels touch at all Central and South American ports, also in Mexico, and that gentleman stated that nothing in the way of filibustering is going on in Mobile.

"BABE" HENDERSON DEAD.

Prominent Texan Passes Away Suddenly at Sulphur Springs Home.
Sulphur Springs, Tex., Feb. 25.—H. E., better known as "Babe" Henderson, was found dead in bed early Saturday morning. He retired Friday night in his usual good health. Mr. Henderson conducted a general merchandise store here and leaves a widow and several children. He carried the electoral vote of Texas to Washington last month and was a leading Democrat.

ARE ENTHUSIASTIC.

Number of Farmers Have Fully Determined to Diversify.

Fort Worth, Feb. 25.—F. V. Evans, who has been out among the farmers of northern Texas, with them in their schoolhouse meetings, says that the farmers are enthusiastic on the question of diversification and reduction of the cotton acreage and also on holding their cotton, and that the consensus of opinion is that if the farmers take care of the cotton, put it under shelter and protect it from the weather, by the aid of the local merchants and bankers they are going to win out in this fight.

MELBA'S SON LEAVES.

George Armstrong Returns to Ranch In McCulloch County.

Galveston, Feb. 25.—George Armstrong, who has been with his mother, Mrs. Melba, the noted singer, at several cities during her Texas tour, has returned home. He and his father live on a ranch in McCulloch county. Mrs. Melba was divorced from the young man's father some years ago, it is alleged.

KILLED BY FALLING WALL.

Houston, Feb. 25.—A wall of the new three-story Cochran building fell Saturday morning while workmen were attempting to repair it. Charles Smith was instantly killed and Clark Taylor and Jones Jackson badly injured. All are negroes.

The company getting up the proposed contest for a big Library to be given away on a voting plan FREE, takes this method of informing the friends of the enterprise in the different organizations in town, that a complete list of merchants and others who propose making this generous offer, will be given in a few days. We give herewith a few of the merchants who have subscribed up to Saturday night. The institution securing this collection of books will be indeed fortunate, and the following firms will be provided with free voting tickets:

Hunter & Chatham, Gents' Furnishings
Henry & Brogdon, Grain and Feed
J. C. Chaney & Son, Meat Market

HUNDRED CONSUMED.

Hot Springs Has a Million and a Half Dollar Fire.

WOMEN ARE BURNED.

Blaze, Which Started in a Hotel, Was Soon Communicated to Numerous Other Structures and Many Wiped Out.

Hot Springs, Feb. 25.—This city was visited Saturday morning at an early hour by a disastrous conflagration, entailing a loss conservative estimates place at $1,500,000.

The fire started at 3:30 o'clock in the Grand Avenue hotel, corner of Central avenue and Chapel streets, in the southern portion of the city. A high wind was blowing and the flames quickly spread to the south and west. The Plateau hotel, Hotel Moody, Garnier flats and several lodging houses were quickly destroyed.

The fire department rendered good service until 6 o'clock, when the water pressure gave out and the threatened area was left to the mercy of the flames. Duffie's general store, one of the largest in the city, is a total loss.

About 100 houses were destroyed before the flames were checked. The district between Ouachita avenue and Prospect street was swept by the flames. About 10,000 people, citizens and visitors, are homeless. Fortunately springlike temperature prevailed. The streets were filled with merchandise taken from the stores in the threatened district.

The charred bodies of three women were found in the ruins of the Grand Central hotel. The remains were so badly burned as to make identification impossible.

After the water pressure gave out bucket brigades were formed and hundreds of citizens and visitors volunteered their services.

Though still burning at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, the fire at that time was under control.

The spring season always attracts a large number of visitors to this resort. The city has been filling up with visitors for several weeks and it is estimated that fully 20,000 of these sojourners are now here.

Three large hotels—Arlington, Eastman and Park—were not damaged by the fire.

The burned section extends from Ouachita avenue to Oak Lawn.

Firemen put forth every effort to save the county courthouse and jail, but their efforts were of no avail, both structures being consumed. Many valuable records were burned and twenty prisoners in the jail were rescued with difficulty. In South Hot Springs the cottage district, which was consumed, several persons were missing Saturday. The Jewish synagogue, Central Methodist church and residence of Mayor Belding and Sheriff Williams were completely destroyed.

The district occupied by bath houses and government reservation on the east side of Central avenue escaped the flames.

Telephone and street car service was suspended and all buildings were practically abandoned for the day Saturday.

The passenger depot of the Rock Island system, although surrounded on all sides by flames, escaped injury. The Little Rock and Hot Springs Western passenger station also escaped.

When the fire broke out a general alarm was turned in. The high winds soon fanned the conflagration into a seething sheet of flame, wooden buildings directly in the path of the fire burning like tinder. Guests of leading hotels were awakened at once. The streets were soon filled with people. Men, women and children were seen running in all directions, many carrying valuables and light household goods, seeking places of safety. To the west of Central avenue is a wooded park and in this strip of timber, directly in the path of the fire, was arrested its progress in that direction. The city is filled with turfmen and race followers, many of whom joined in the work of the firemen.

ADJUDGED SPENDTHRIFT.

Cook Alleged to Have Spent Five Hundred Dollars One Night.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—John R. Cook, one of the members of the Cook Brewing company, has been adjudged to be a spendthrift by a jury in the probate court. That he had an income of $15,000 per year and spent as much as $500 in one night was evidence introduced. His wife testified that last year she received by $84 from her husband for the support of herself and child. She left him several months ago.

TAYLOR HELD.

As a Result He Will Have to Stand Trial at Nacogdoches.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Judge Chetlain has refused to free Charles F. Taylor, indicted with Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke by the grand jury of Nacogdoches county, Texas, on the charge of obtaining $3000 under false pretenses. The case came before Judge Chetlain on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by Taylor's attorney through representation that the Texas indictment was faulty. His lawyer contended that four of the five counts in the indictment were not sufficiently clear to warrant holding the prisoner for Texas officers, but the court held the indictment to be good. As a result Taylor will have to face trial in Texas. It was stated Saturday that Deputy Sheriff Moses Adams would start at once for Texas with Taylor.

The anti-free pass bill has gone to its little grave.

The trouble about these sensational things that Congress, Roosevelt, Kansas and others are doing is that it gives Lawson a chance to point with pride, and say "I did it."

The Southern Pacific merger bill was adversely reported by the house committee. Chairman Andrews seems not to have the great power it was thought he would swing with his chairmanship.

It looks to an impartial observer who will really observe, that the "corporations," that is the railroad corporations, are really doing about as much for Texas as Texas is doing for them. Look at the great work being done for immigration by the railroads, distributing enormous quantities of literature, holding immigration meetings, promoting farmers' institutes and diversification, and developing the material interests of the state.

TRINITY AND BRAZOS VALLEY.

O. P. McMillan of Rogers Prairie was in town Wednesday and reported that on Monday the corps of engineers of the Trinity and Brazos Valley railroad were camped at the Bundick crossing on the Navasota river. They are surveying a line down the river, and will pass to the west of Willow Hole, evidently running as close to the river as practicable.—Madisonville Meteor

It has been given out on good authority that the Brownsville road will acquire the Trinity and Brazos Valley and build through from Mexia to Houston without delay. Jeff N. Miller, general manager of the Brownsville road, has visited Houston to look over the ground for terminals.

The Bryan Light Guards will drill Monday night, for inspection March 3. All members are urged to attend.

ICE GORGES BREAK.

Those in Vicinity of Cincinnati Do a Great Deal of Damage.

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Ice gorges in the Ohio river in this vicinity, which were the heaviest known for many years, began to give way during Friday night. Several breaks occurred at various points. The river rose several feet during Friday night, but the ice was so heavy that it soon caught again, forming new gorges. Property damage of about $75,000 has been caused by these early movements. Tied up along the banks of the Ohio and Licking rivers at this point Saturday were twenty-five steamers, towboats and fifty-two barges. One-third of them are loaded, and the value of the barges and loads aggregated $1,170,000. Besides these, more than fifty gasoline launches and other pleasure boats, small wharf boats and houseboats brought the total value of river property menaced by the combination of ice and low water to a figure well above $2,000,000. For more than a month the various crews have been doing all in their power to keep clear the water around the boats so that some freedom for movement of paddle wheels and less danger of being dragged away with the heavy ice might be secured.

THE STOMACH IN WINTER.

Hearty Food Puts Extra Strain on This Important Organ.

Winter is a little more than half over, and the results of its hearty food are shown in the variable appetite, nausea, gnawing at the pit of the stomach, heartburn, sallow skin, furred tongue, headache, backache, and sleeplessness. The stomach has been overworked, the nervous system is unstrung, the blood is in bad condition, the digestive organs are tired out.

It is at this season of the year that Mi-o-na, the only remedy known that gives strength to the stomach and digestive organs, is of especial value.

Mi-o-na is not a hit-or-miss cure, but is an unusual combination of remedies that makes it infallible in restoring health to the stomach and digestive system. It overcomes any acid condition that may be present in the stomach and intestines, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, has a stimulating effect on the solar plexus, and combines peculiar properties that strengthen the nerves of the stomach and puts the whole digestive system in so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, any disease germs in the stomach will be destroyed, and the digestive system will be so strengthened that it will extract from the food all the elements that make solid bone, firm muscle, and pure blood. It is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer.

The guarantee on Mi-o-na is given by one of our best known druggists, E. J. Jenkins, who agrees to refund the price, 50 cents, should Mi-o-na not give perfect satisfaction. Ask him to show you the guarantee he gives with every package.

SOCIAL and Club Matters

Mesdames M. W. Sims, A. J. McQueen, and Miss Nellie Smith were hostesses Thursday afternoon for one of the most elegantly appointed Forty-Two parties which has been given in honor of Mrs. J. D. Trammel of Fort Worth. It was an ideal spring day and all within Mrs. Sims' reception suit was sweet, fresh and beautiful with violets and ferns, and a company of well dressed women. Five tables were used and on each table was a little booklet adorned with a hand-painted flower, the flowers used being carnations, American Beauty roses, poppies, daisies and pansies. Each lady was presented with one of each kind of these flowers, which served as the score cards. The games were kept by small gold stars. The guest prize, a handsome copy of Browning's poems, was presented by Mrs. Tyler Haswell to Mrs. J. D. Trammel. A cut glass perfume bottle was presented to Mrs. A. M. Waldrop, for being successful enough to win the most games, by Mrs. J. T. Hanway, while the consolation box of candy was presented to Mrs. A. F. Wilson by Miss McInnis. The characteristic style and finish of these three ladies' methods of entertaining were notable, and after a salad course the ladies all thanked their hostesses for such a delightful afternoon. Present were: Mesdames J. D. Trammel, R. S. Webb, P. S. Tilson, A. F. Wilson, W. C. Fountain, Frank Clarke, T. K. Lawrence, W. C. Davis, Collins Bradley, Webb Howell, Allen McKenzie, M. W. Sims, Jr., Tyler Haswell, J. T. Hanway, W. S. Howell, J. A. McQueen, M. W. Sims; Misses Jennie Howell, Lilla Graham McInnis, Hettie Smith, Wilkerson, Nellie Smith.

On Wednesday afternoon between the hours of four-thirty and six Mrs. J. K. Davis extended the hospitality of her home to the students of Villa Maria for a beautiful reception which they gave in honor of the talented young orator, Rev. J. M. Kirwin of Galveston. The door was opened by Misses Ruby Davis and Agnes Price, while the guests were met in the parlor by Miss Carr, Rev. Kirwin, Mrs. W. S. Howell, Mrs. Gibson of Calvert, Mrs. Stevens of Liberty, Misses Frances Fountain, Bessie Gibson, Ada Field, Laura Stevens and Katy Wray Ward. In the dining room was a highly polished table laid with handsome drawn work and silver candelabra holding candles, with purple shades, which threw a pretty light into the faces of the merry party of girls who served hot chocolate and cake. These young ladies were Misses Alice Fountain, Hattie Lou Hudson, Mary Harris, Gladys McDonald, Helen Carroll, Annie Belle Clay, and Allie Conway. Delightful music was furnished during the evening by Mrs. J. K. Davis and Mr. Santiago Carna of College, with piano and violin. The richest and choicest decorations of purple and gold, the club's colors, served to enhance the attractive interior of this home, and about seventy-five guests met the hostesses and guest of honor. Beautiful pot flowers were used in all the rooms, while candles with purple shades burned from mantel, cabinets and tables. After an hour or two of social chatting the guests bid their hostesses good-bye, assuring them of an evening of unbounded pleasure.

Miss Lucy Board entertained the Bachelor Girls club and the K. K. club of cadets Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. A. G. Board. They found the rooms artistically adapted to entertaining with graceful garlands of southern smilax and draperies of A. & M. colors, red and white, white in the parlor, and the Bachelor Girl's colors, pink and white, held full sway in the dining room. The hostess, who knows so well the charm of entertaining, soon had her guests contesting in game of military forty-two. A war of roses was carried out at the same time. As the guests progressed each was given red and white roses again introduce-ing the College colors, a pretty and unique feature much appreciated. The prize for the young men was a beautiful sofa pillow of yellow and black, made in the design of the K. K. club's pin, and had the two letters "K. K." beautifully woven on the pillow. The girl's prize was a lovely pastel picture. Miss Lucy was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Misses Ada Board, and Elma Harbers. Misses Lavinia McConaie and Henrie Wilson served punch in the hall, and were red and white dresses. At the conclusion of the game lunch cloths were laid and pressed chicken, sandwiches, cheese sticks, crackers and olives were served while sherbet garnished with cherries was passed in little red rose cups, with delicious cake. This was indeed one of the most delightful evening's, and by the two clubs this season. The hostess was repeatedly told so by her guests as all said good bye.

Miss Mai Wilson's class in music delighted an appreciative audience at the opera house yesterday afternoon with their first public recital. The program given below indicates the excellence of the entertainment, which was creditable alike to Miss Wilson and her pupils, and evidenced careful training, ability and application. The Mutual Improvement Club will celebrate Texas Independence with an open meeting, on March 1st. While this is one day removed from Independence day, yet it is sufficiently near to be under the spell of patriotic feeling that should well up in the hearts of Texans when the ides of March are near. The Club have prepared an interesting program, as follows:

Song—The Flag of Texas.

Roll Call—Two minute talks on Texas History.

Paper—The Passing of the Red Man and the Buffalo.—A. J. Buchanan.

Recitation—Lasca.—Mrs. Tyler Haswell.

Paper—Texas Under Six Flags—Prof. R. O. Allen.

Instrumental Solo—Miss Mai Wilson.

Paper—Is Patriotism Taught by our Public Schools?—J. A. Moore.

Discussion—The Public Institutions of Our State.

Song—The Lone Star of Texas.

The Mutual Improvement Club of Bryan are taking an interest in live questions of the day, and are destined to exercise a potent and healthful influence over affairs. The hearts of the good ladies are not likely to be wrong on questions of public policy that are related to morals, civic and racial well being. Their activity is always to be commended.

One of the important social events of the week was an evening of forty-two at the home of Mrs. J. W. Johnson, given by Miss Sallie Johnson in honor of Miss Wilkerson of Birmingham, Ala. This charming young lady has had many social courtesies shown her while in Bryan, but none have been more enjoyable than this evening spent at the Johnson home. This being a very informal affair, only thirty-two young people received invitations and for several hours merriment reigned supreme. Miss Johnson was assisted in making the function a success by her mother, and everything combined to make the party a most delightful one. Bonbons in cut glass dishes were passed during the games and chicken salad, crackers, olives and hot coffee were served, also delicious fruit. Following were those present: Misses Jessie Garth, Irene Keeling, Lavinia McConaie, Hettie Smith, Wilkerson, Henrie Wilson, Jennie Howell, Sallie Johnson; Messrs Robert Howell, Walter Coulter, Fay of College, Sam Wilson, Ed Saunders, John Friley, George Adams and Ralph Chatham.

The usual weekly meeting of the Embroidery Club was enjoyed by its members on Tuesday at the home of Miss Nellie Smith. These meetings are much appreciated and well attended by the membership. Miss Smith, assisted by Miss Hettie Smith and Mrs. McQueen, entertained in a most charming way. Three tables were placed in the spacious parlor on which was played the most popular and interesting game of the season—Forty-Two. At the conclusion of the fourth game Miss Wilkerson was presented with a hand-made handkerchief, she having won all the games. Refreshments of broiled oysters, crackers, pickles and hot coffee were served.

Tuesday night the members of the junior class of the Agricultural and Mechanical College celebrated Washington's Birthday by having an elegant banquet in the mess hall. Beside the members of the class there were present Capt. H. H. Sargent, commandant of cadets; M. S. Church, cadet major of the battalion, and Capt. W. A. Price, captain of Company A. The two latter were present as representatives of the present senior class. Mr. J. S. Dean, president of the junior class, acted as toastmaster. Toasts were given and responded to as follows: "The Class of '05," R. L. Burney; response W. A. Price; "The Father of Our Country," H. Baines; "Our Athletes," G. L. Reese; "Our Football Team," Capt. G. T. Halton; "The Ladies," N. B. Crooks.

After the regular toast list was exhausted Capt. Sargent was called for and responded in a felicitous manner, and Maj. Church paid a high tribute to the character and standing of the class of '06.

This was the first attempt of any of the lower classes to have a function of this kind, and all are highly pleased with the success of the occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. David F. Houston gave an informal 6 o'clock dinner at College Wednesday evening in honor of Maj. M. S. Church, Adjutant T. B. Sammon and Quartermaster Sergeant R. L. Burney composing the staff, and the captains of the four cadet companies, G. C. Street of company A, D. E. Pendleton of company B, T. C. Born of company C, and W. A. Price of company D. In addition the following young ladies from Bryan were present to and grace to the occasion: Misses Nellie and Hettie Smith, Miss Jennie Howell, Miss Lilla Graham McInnis and Miss Sadie Cavitt.

With the exquisite taste which characterizes all of Mrs. Houston's social functions, she followed out a pretty red, white and blue scheme of decorations, the same colors being evidenced in the table decorations, and selected in honor of Washington's birthday. The dinner was served in six courses.

The younger set of Bryan young ladies have organized a "Bachelors" social club to play forty-two and met yesterday afternoon with Miss Maggie McDougald. The following officers have been elected: Miss Judy McConie, president; Miss Irma Harris, vice-president; Miss Louise Harris, secretary; Miss Gussie Buchanan, reporter. Other members of the club are Misses Vivian James, Maggie McDougald, Alberta Adams, Hattie Ray Harbers, Hattie Lou Hudson, Mabel Hull, Bessie Buchanan, Alma Robinson, Nannie Lou Betts, Mae Hobgood.

Miss Kate Paul, a pupil of Villa Maria Academy, was the honoree of a dancing party Thursday evening, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Paul of Houston, at the armory. Mr. and Mrs. Paul were assisted in making the young people have a good time by Mrs. Laura Koppe, and Mrs. Loye Allen of Houston. Good music was supplied and about twenty couples were present. Punch was served by Miss Bertha Horetzky and Miss Fant. Fruits, candies and cake were also served.

The students of the A. & M. have final arrangement for their annual commencement hop. The following students were elected to manage the affair: G. C. Street, president; W. A. Price, chairman of arrangement committee; H. E. Hanna, chairman of invitation committee; O. L. Forsgard, chairman of reception committee; H. B. Farmer, chairman of decoration committee; R. M. Burton, chairman of floor committee; G. L. Reese, chairman of finance committee.
